- demonstrates willingness to devote time and effort to understand the businesses and exemplifies readiness to participate in events outside the boardroom;
- manifests passion in the vocation of a director;
- exhibits ability to articulate views independently, objectively and constructively;
- exhibits open mindedness to the views of others and ability to make considered judgment after hearing the views of others.

3. The Assessment

- 3.1. The NC will assess each person for a new appointment or re-appointment of Directors based on the criteria set under item 2 before recommending to the Board for approval.
- 3.2. The fit and proper assessments must be supported by relevant information in relation to a director. Where significant reliance is placed on information that is obtained from the person being assessed, and that information is material to the determination of the person's fitness and propriety, the NC is expected to take reasonable steps within permissible written laws to verify the information against independent sources.
- 3.3. The documentation of fit and proper assessments for each director are part of the Company's internal documents and shall not be disclosed or provided to any other party.
- 3.4. Where the NC has assessed that a person:
 - is not fit and proper for a position, the board shall not appoint the person to the said position; and
 - is no longer fit and proper for a position, the board shall take reasonable steps to remove the person from such position as soon as practicable and in the interim, institute necessary measures to mitigate risks associated with the person continuing to hold the position.

4. Review of Policy

The NC shall recommend any change to the Policy as the NC deems appropriate to the Board for approval. The terms of the Policy shall be assessed, reviewed and updated where necessary i.e. when there are changes to the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance, Listing Requirements of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad or any other regulatory requirements.
